

PRODUCER ? or CONSUMER ?

Just like you, sometimes Ava and Finn are producers, and other times they are consumers. Read the sentences below.

Circle the word producer if Ava or Finn earns money for making goods or providing services.

Circle the word consumer if Ava or Finn pays money to buy goods or services. The example below is done for you.

EXAMPLE:

Ava buys apples at the farmer's market.

producer

consumer

QUESTION 1:

Finn gets paid $2.00 each time he walks his neighbor's dog.

producer

consumer

QUESTION 2:

Ava buys beads at the craft store to make her mom a necklace.

producer

consumer

QUESTION 3:

Finn gets a haircut before the school year starts.

producer

consumer

QUESTION 4:

Ava and her friends wash cars to earn money for camp.

producer

consumer

QUESTION 5:

Finn buys a drone to make his invention, the Wavebot Ketchup Launcher 4000, fly.

producer

consumer

QUESTION 6:

Ava sells berries from her garden to her aunts and uncles.

producer

consumer

BONUS!

QUESTION 7:

Which of the first six sentences describes Ava as providing a service?

QUESTION 8:

Which of the first six sentences describes Ava as selling a good?

QUESTION 9:

Would Finn be a producer or a consumer if he sells his Wavebot Ketchup Launcher 4000?

producer

consumer